Details:

The State of Texas, acting by and through the Department of Information Resources, is seeking to enter into a contract with one or more Qualified Information Systems Vendors (QISV) to provide information technology disaster recovery services. Responding vendors must be able to provide disaster recovery support for mainframe computer systems, as stated within the Invitation to Negotiate (ITN). All vendors able to meet the mandatory requirements are encouraged to respond to this ITN. Awarded vendor(s) must be QISV approved at the time of contract execution. For more information about the TX QISV program please visit the TX Building and Procurement Commission's website: <http://www.tbpc.state.tx.us/hub/vendhow2.html>. Please note, if the potential vendor's ITN response does not meet all of the submission requirements as stated, the response will be considered non-responsive and will be disqualified.
